

Ruprecht-Karls-Universität Heidelberg
Philosophische Fakultät
Historisches Seminar
im Juni 2007

Uniting the West.
The Bilderberg Group, the Cold War
and European Integration, 1952-1966

Dissertation zur Erlangung der Doktorwürde

im Fach Mittlere und Neuere Geschichte

vorgelegt von

Thomas W. Gijswijt

Großherzog-Friedrichstraße 106
66121 Saarbrücken

Erstgutachter:

Prof. Dr. Detlef Junker

Historisches Seminar/ Heidelberg Center for American Studies
Ruprecht-Karls-Universität Heidelberg

Zweitgutachter:

PD. Dr. Philipp Gassert

Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures
University of Pennsylvania

Contents

Introduction	1
Chapter 1. The Creation of the Bilderberg Group	7
1. Joseph H. Retinger – Operator behind the Scenes.....	7
2. A European Call for Transatlantic Action, 1952.....	10
3. Report No. 1 - Anti-Americanism in Europe.....	13
4. The American Response: Report No. 2.....	20
5. Report No. 3 and the Decision to Organize the First Bilderberg Conference.....	32
6. The First Bilderberg Conference, May 29-31, 1954.....	39
Chapter 2. The Western Quest for Security in 1955	61
1. The American Steering Committee and Prince Bernhard's Chairmanship.....	61
2. The Communist Challenge and the Uncommitted People of Europe – The Barbizon Conference, March 1955.....	67
3. Coexistence and the Threat of Peace – The Garmisch-Partenkirchen Conference, September 1955.....	81
4. Discussing NATO's Future: Article 2 and Nuclear Strategy.....	86
5. The German Problem.....	103
6. The Relance Européenne: European Integration and the German Problem.....	113
7. The Historiography of the Rome Treaties and the Lessons of the 1955 Bilderberg Meetings.....	127
Chapter 3. Decolonization, the Third World and the Suez Crisis	137
1. The Bandung Conference and the Emergence of the Third World – the Barbizon Conference, March 1955.....	137
2. Problems in the Underdeveloped World and the Failure of NATO Consultation – the Fredensborg Conference, May 1956.....	145
3. The Suez Crisis.....	154
4. Suez and the Rome Treaties.....	166
Chapter 4. From Hungary to Sputnik: East-West Relations, Nuclear Strategy and the Question of Disengagement in Europe, 1956-1960	171
1. The Polish-Hungarian Crisis and the First Calls for Disengagement – the St. Simons Island Conference, February 1957.....	171
2. NATO Nuclear Strategy in the Missile Age – The Fiuggi Conference, October 1957.....	185
3. The Second Disengagement Debate in 1958.....	211
4. Judging Soviet Intentions – the Buxton Conference, September 1958.....	221
Chapter 5. Atlantic Partnership vs. l'Europe des Patries, 1958-1966	229
1. The Free Trade Area, 1958-1960.....	229
2. The Kennedy Administration and the Bilderberg Group.....	243
3. De Gaulle's Veto and the Franco-German Treaty – the Cannes Conference, March 1963.....	264
4. The Multilateral Force - The Williamsburg Conference, March 1964.....	279
5. Outlook: the Bilderberg Group after de Gaulle's NATO Withdrawal in 1966 – the Wiesbaden Conference, March 1966.....	287

Conclusion	293
Appendix A. List of Bilderberg Conferences, 1954-1966	305
Sources	307
1. Unpublished Sources.....	307
2. Published Sources.....	312
Bibliography	315